HOME ADVANTAGE Loan Program

Qualified Washington State residents may be eligible for lower mortgage interest rates and down payment assistance.

Apply Today!

The Home Advantage loan program, from the Washington State Housing Finance Commission, helps qualified low- to moderate-income home buyers to purchase a home.

The program can be used with conventional, FHA, USDA and VA home loans. Eligible households may also qualify for down payment assistance of a maximum loan amount of up to 4% of the first mortgage loan amount in the form of a deferred second mortgage at 0% interest and no monthly payment.

How to Qualify for Home Advantage

- This loan program is available for qualifying residents in the state of Washington.
- Annual household income must not exceed $97,000.
- A 620 middle score is required for each borrower.
- Participants must attend a FREE Home Buyer Education Seminar and receive a certificate of completion valid for 2 years.
